

VISION & MISSION

- To establish centre of excellence in Kriya Shareera
- By following classical concept of Kriya adopting modern technology through standard operating procedure, imparting quality education to students.
- To provide in depth knowledge about the fundamentals of shareera or human body to the students of Ayurveda.
- The department aims at imparting quality education to the seekers of Ayurveda in order to produce good physicians and researchers.
- The department aspires to maintain the highest degree of competence in skill development and research orientation of the students.
- To utilize the concepts of shareera kriya in curative and preventive aspects of Ayurveda and to apply the knowledge of shareera kriya in better life style and health management.

