

VISION & MISSION

- To be the Department of excellence with integrated, interdisciplinary teaching and Research in Shareera Rachana (Human Anatomy) geared towards health care needs of humanity
- To impart a knowledge on normal and applied aspects of Human Body.
- To train the students to gain the anatomical knowledge through theory & cadaver dissection and its application in clinical practice.
- To develop a well organized anatomy museum.
- To promote research & to gain knowledge about recent advances in the field of Anatomy.
- A centre of learning and preparing students for academic pursuits, medical professional training, enhanced personal lives and responsible global citizenship
- Extending frontiers of knowledge through relevant interdisciplinary Research
- Contributing to the enhancement of health of humanity by service moto.

